My Account can help you manage and reduce water use. Sign up today to learn how much water your home or building uses hourly/daily and see how your water use affects your bill. To enroll, visit myaccount.sfwater.org for more info.

As of Sept 2017, single family customers with three or more days of continuous water use will be notified by letter, email, phone and text. Nonstop water use may mean there is a leak. Fixing leaks saves water, and that means money on your bill.
